Licensing

Unless otherwise specified, all delivered images and videos include a 3-year, non-exclusive worldwide license for use across all media platforms (print, web, social, advertising, etc.).

- Credit line not required for usage
- Renewable upon request
- Additional or extended licensing (e.g., exclusivity, perpetual use, copyright buyout) is available and may incur added fees

Licensing period does not begin until full payment has been received.

Client is responsible for ensuring the subject is 100% photo-ready upon arrival.

If the photographer must stage or bring items (flowers, props, etc.), staging fees will apply, as well as actual cost of staged items.

Talent will be booked at talent fee + 20% booking fee.

We're always happy to help elevate the final look of your aircraft. Staging and enhancement services are available as optional add-ons, tailored to your vision and budget.

Scope Flexibility

We understand creative projects evolve — and we're here to help bring your full vision to life. If, during the shoot, you say something like, "Since you're already here, can you also..." — we totally get it, and we'll do everything we can to accommodate.

However, please note that if these requests substantially expand the original assignment's scope, additional charges for time, resources, or deliverables may apply.

Minor additions (e.g., alternate angles, close-ups, small tweaks) are included. But larger scope increases — such as twilight exteriors, new video segments, or scenes not originally discussed — will be billed accordingly.

Any direction from the client that leads to expanded scope (whether or not stated in the original agreement) will be taken as explicit consent to proceed and to bill for the added work.
